2011 CLASSIC CANOE MARATHON WORLD SERIES UPDATE

2011 CLASSIC CANOE MARATHON WORLD SERIES

Following the completion of the Dalsland Marathon 7 races have now been included in the log. The log has not changed significantly as a result of this event. Rene Olsen winner of the men's K1 in the Dalsland Marathon has moved into 7th place in the log and Sofie Jorgenson, winner of the Women event has moved into 5th place on the Women's log.

Men's K1

This class is still led by Manuel BUSTO FERNANDEZ of Spain who was the K1 winner of the Sella Descent and the Waterland Marathon. Hank MCGREGOR of South Africa is in second place. Stuart West from Great Britain is in 3rd place.

Women's K1

The women's K1 is now led by Hilary PITCHFORD from South Africa, Robyn Kime from South Africa is in 2nd place and Sarah Millest from Great Britain is in 3rd place.

C1

The lead in this class is shared between Anthony WILSON from Great Britain and David MOSQUERA LENDOIRO of Spain.

2012 CLASSIC CANOE MARATHON WORLD SERIES

We are still open to receive application for events to be part of the series in 2012 as we have decided to extend the time limit to 1 October.

Applications must be submitted to the ICF Canoe Marathon Chairman cronberg@online.no.

For an event to be considered for the series an event organizer has to

- confirm that their competition complies with the Classic World Series Rules,
- confirm the dates of the event,
- confirm to pay the participation fee, currently 600 EUR, but subject to confirmation,
- document that their application is approved by their National Federation,
- name a person who will be the link to the ICF (name and email).

For questions please contact ICF Canoe Marathon Committee member Tim Cornish, cornisht@mweb.co.za.
